Josua, Cap. 1, V. 8.

Vorrede.

Hiemit erscheint die erste in America herausgegebene Deutsche Bibel in Folio-Format. Wir schmeicheln uns mit der Hoffnung, daß die Arbeit unsern Gönnern, und dem Publicum überhaupt, gefallen wird.

Keine Mühe und Kosten wurden gespart, diesem heiligen Buche seinen gehörigen Werth und alle mögliche Schönheit und Brauchbarkeit zu ertheilen. Das Papier, der Druck, der Einband, die Tabellen, Register, Geschichte, Vorreden, alles wurde mit dem größesten Fleiße besorgt. Die Ueberschriften der Capitel haben wir, meistentheils, so viel als möglich, zu verbessern, und, wo die Verbesserungen unternommen worden, so einzurichten gesucht, daß, wenn man dieselben, das ganze besondere Buch hindurch, in ununterbrochener Reihe fortliest, der wesentliche Inhalt des Buchs daraus ersehen werden kann. Bey den Parallelstellen wurde die Hallische Bibel zum Wegweiser angenommen; wir hoffen aber, daß, durch Zusätze und Veränderungen hierin, unsere Ausgabe an Brauchbarkeit gewonnen hat. Jede Sylbe wurde untersucht, jedes Comma nach bestem Wissen berichtigt. Endlich wurde der Versuch gemacht, bald durch eine andere Art der Uebersetzung, bald durch eine erklärende Anmerkung, beides mit einem Zeichen unter die Verse eingeschaltet, ein wenig Licht auf Stellen zu werfen, die sonst dunkel wären, oder mißverstanden werden könnten. Diese mag der Leser brauchen nach Belieben und Gutdünken.

Hier ist es also, das wichtigste aller Bücher; es bringe * Segen in jedes Haus, wo es, mit heiterem Willkommen, empfangen wird! Gerne haben wir es so nutzbar und so schön gemacht, als unser Vermögen es erlaubt. Ueber seinen Werth können wir es niemals schmücken.

Seine heilige Würde behält dennoch dieses erhabene Geschenk GOttes, auch im einfachsten, zierlosesten Kleide. Keine menschliche Hand kann dem einen wesentlichen Schmuck ertheilen, auf welches schon GOttes Angesicht seinen Glanz wirft. —— Unter veralterten Teppichen stand auf Zion die Bundeslade. Die morsche Hütte würdigte Jehovah seiner Gegenwart. Der segensvollen Bundeslade benahm das Veraltern ihrer Decke keinen Werth. Von Zion weg trug Salomon das ganze Heiligthum † hinüber auf Moriah, in den prächtigen Tempel. Nahm nun das Heiligthum an Würde zu? Es blieb, wie vor, Israels bester Schatz. Bejahrt und grau und morsch gab immer noch das Heiligthum des HErrn dem großen Tempel seine schönste Würde. Doch aber dient es Salomon zum Ruhm, Jehovah

* 2 Sam. 6, 11. 12. † Hier wird ein Irrthum berichtigt, der in dem angehängten Namen-Register, welches wir wörtlich aus einer in Tübingen herausgegebenen Bibel abgedruckt haben, Seite 76, unter "Zion" gefunden wird. Der Tempel Salomons stand auf Moriah, an dem Orte, wo vordem die Tenne Arafnas gewesen war, und nicht auf Zion. Man lese 2 Sam. 6. Cap. 24. 1 Kön, 8. 1 Chron. 14. C. 16. C. 17. C. 22. C. 28. 2 Chron. 3, 1. C. 5, 1—7.

und seinem Heiligthume die Pracht des mit viel Kunst und Gold und Farbe geschmückten Tempels gewidmet zu haben. Dennoch gefiel es Jehovah wohl, daß er es that. Der Hohe und Erhabene kam; Er bewohnte das Haus, das die Ehrfurcht und Liebe seiner Kinder mit Schmuck umgeben hatten. —— Unsere Bundeslade ist dies Buch, das GOttes Wort enthält. Theuer und werth ist das erhabene Heiligthum, wenn auch im schmucklosesten Gewand. Empfinden wir aber seinen Werth, und geben ihm den Schmuck, den unser Herz empfiehlt, und unser Vermögen erlaubt; so ist es gewiß ein menschlicher Ausdruck dankbarer Empfindung, der dem allgütigen Vater seiner unvollkommenen Kinder nicht mißfallen wird.

Nur muß das Aeußerliche der Gabe das Herz nicht fesseln. Der Heilige selbst, den dieses Buch enthält, JEsus Christus, der Zweck, der Gegenstand, der Inhalt des erhabenen und würdigen Geschenks, Er ist es, der dem ganzen Buche seinen wesentlichen Werth ertheilt. Ihn, "den Anfänger und Vollender des Glaubens," der uns GOtte empfiehlt, müssen wir immer vor Augen haben, wann wir es lesen. Benutzen wir es so, wenden wir es auf unsern Verstand, auf unser Herz, auf unsern Willen an; dann wird es uns zur "Gotteskraft." Und gehen wir hin in seiner Kraft, und werden "Thäter seines Wortes;" so "bauen wir unser Glück auf einen Felsen, den Sturm und Wellen nie erschüttern können."

Dear Sir:

I saw your card in the D.A.R. room of the Fairbanks Memorial Library offering to give some information in regard to any person living east of the Mississippi before 1830 - so I am enclosing stamps in the hope that you can aid me in tracing my mother's lines.

1. Any information in regard to Robert R. Currey or Currie who married Charlotte McCreary Jeffries - a widow in Washington Co. Ind. Oct. 27, 1842.

2. Any information about William McCreary and Midda Falkner McCreary parents of Charlotte McCreary Currie.
b. Apr. 17, 1822 d. 1857

Robert Currey is said to have been a stage driver and on one trip took cold, stopped at his father's home as he was closer to it than his own where he died. This was before 1850 - so he does not appear in that census. His wife and children also his step son does.

He is said to have lived near Cincinnatti and came to Indiana from there.

In History of Greene and Sullivan Co. (T. H. Libr.

I found Early Justices of Sullivan Co. Roberty Curry 1838

page 652 - Curry twp. named for William Currey - about 1817 came from Kentucky - settled ~~near~~ land near village of Curryville From 1812-20 there arrived many pioneers among them Samuel and Robert Currey.

Also in Hist. of Sullivan Co. See page 7 of this letter.

William McCreary and his wife Midda Falkner McCreary - lived in Ohio - both are said to have been born in N.C. They moved to Indiana Jackson Co. then to Washington Co - west of Fredericksburg. Wm McC - died about 1829. Midda McCreary ~~by~~ in 1850 census was 60 - place of birth not given.

I have been told that Midda was a nickname given her by her father as she was born at midnight - do not know real name

They had 8 or 9 children — I have names of eight and whom they married - date of birth, ~~of~~ some and date of marriage obtained from Bibles, Washington County records, census reports etc.

Among their children were two sets of twins and 1 set of triplets.

The triplets were my grandmother Charlotte Curry, ~~Ford Emanuel~~ Joseph Emanuel and Ford born April 7, 1822.

~~The next~~ I'll enclose data I have in regard to births, marriages etc — next.

Midda Falkner b. 1790 - died after 1850 I think about 1860 as a man (b. in 1843) said he was at her funeral and he was about 7 or 8. Mother remembers seeing her grandmother.

Moved to Jackson Co. Ind. from Ohio - born in N.C. Later moved to Washington Co. Ind.

In Hist. of Greene + Sullivan Co. p. 648

In regard to Wm McCreary's wife Midda Falkner. You will find in a County Hist. which includes Washington and two other counties a write up of Samuel McCrary. This Samuel was my grandmother (Charlotte McCreary Curry's) brother. Some place in my work I have found a Falkner line - I do not know that it is Midda Falkner's line but the names are what interested me - Ford and Emanuel

Emanuel Falkner b. in Eng buried in Gosport Ind

In the McCreary family they had Emanuel Joseph and also a Ford. each of these had sons Emanuel and the names that appear in the above Falkner line appear in descendants of Midda Falkner McCreary for several generations which may be a clue or may not mean anything. I am thinking the reading of this letter may be worth all the stamps asked on your card, so, please do not think, I expect a full family history for a few postage stamps. I probably gave more details than I should but, not did give all the references that I have collected.

Sincerely
(Miss) Lottie Lafferty

Dear Mrs. Merrill:

In tracing my family history, I have found that most of them came from Sullivan County, Indiana.

There are several books that I believe would be very helpful and I have heard that you may have some of them:

1. "Haddon, McClure Curry & Allied Families," edited by Eliza Haddon Brevoort and Doris Wheeler Bond. 929.273

2. "History of Green and Sullivan Counties," Goodspeed 1884. 977.24 G

3. "History of Sullivan County," Wolfe, 1909. 977.2416

Is there any way I could borrow any of these books through our local library? I would be happy to post a deposit to guarantee their return. If so, our library address is:

Amador County Library
Highway 49 & 88
Jackson, California 95642

I am also interested in your microfilm file of obituaries. Is your file indexed by name or date? Can you tell me if you have an obituary on Thomas R. Curry of Farmersburg, Indiana (1870-1976)?.

I would be most appreciative of any information you can give me on the Curry family of Sullivan County. I would be happy to pay any copying fees.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Librarian,

I have been referred by the Virgo County Health Department Vital Statistics to your library as a possible source of information with regards to obtaining genealogical data about a birth occurring in the year 1861.

In performing genealogical research on my grandfather, I have located evidence that I believe places his birth in Terre Haute, Indiana. The following data is what I have found concerning his birth:

Name: Charles Edward Curry
Birth Date: 7 July 1861
Birth Place: Terre Haute, Indiana
Father's Name: Addison Curry

In light of this information can you offer any help as to possible sources in your records where verification of his birth might be located? If searches can be made please inform me as to persons to contact and charges involved.

Please find enclosed for your convenience in replying, a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

July 1870 census.

Thank you for your time spent on my behalf.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Graham:

The first reference I found to Addison Curry was in the 1864 city directory for Terre Haute. The entry says that he was a carpenter and lived at 13th St, between Wabash and Cherry. His name was not given in any other directory. In 1882, Charles Curry carp., boarded at Henderson house. Again, this was the only listing I found in the local city directory for him. I found neither of them listed in the Census for Vigo County, Harrison Township, 1870. This is a very time-consuming thing - to search the Census, and if you could get to a library there near you, you could do this youraelf. I am sure that the Oakland Public Library would be able to get this Census of Vigo County, 1880 if it does not have it available. The Census would list all of the members of a household, give their ages and birthplaces, and relationship to the head, plus state of birth of parents.

The other suggestion I have for you is to request the Application for a pension for Addison Curry at the National Archives. I shall enclose a form. He was in the Mexican War, in the 4th Regiment of Indiana Volunteers, Co. H. He enlisted June 12, 1847 in the Fort Harrison Guards Capt. Cochran in Command. He was mustered in at Jeffersonville by Capt. R. C. Gatlin, and mustered out July 10, 1848 at Madison, Ind. by Major H. A. Goff. I am enclosing a copy of a page from "Indiana in the Mexican War", comp. by Oran Perry. (Indianapolis, Burford, 1908). Pension applications usually include quite a bit of family information. He may also have been in the Civil War.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Walker: Feb 27, 1978

The material on the Curry family in our files consists of 34 pages, typed, part of the proof accepted by the DAR in establishing a line from John Curry of Revolutionary service and Susan Curry Biel, whose DAR # is 398636. I do not know, of course whether this is the right one for you. The family was at Fort Knox in 1813. Our usual charge for copies is 10¢ per page, plus postage. Various county histories tell of other members of the family in Sullivan and Vigo Counties. I am enclosing a copy of the page from the 1840 Index to the Census of Indiana. I did not find the name Amey Marshall Curry any way.

Dear Mrs. Merrill:

I find in the current issue of Indiana Genealogist (Winter 1978) that your Library has a collection of family history and I note with interest the name Curry is included.

Please quote me the price for xeroxing the material in the Curry file - a self addressed envelope is enclosed.

Our ancestor Amry Marshall Curry was born in Vigo County in 1838-'39 (?) He went to Missouri as a young man and there was caught up in the Civil War, but served on the side of the Confederacy - a Captain in Co. "D" - 8th Missouri Infantry. We do not have the name of his parents; and only learned of his birthplace through statements he made in 1925, when he filed an application for Pension - in Texas.

Thanking you for this favor. My check will be mailed promptly.

Sincerely yours,

I am most interested in the ~~name~~ GUYMON and would like a copy of whatever there is available on that name. I would also like information for the names CURRY and FRY. I will appreciate very much your telling me the charge for copying the material you have on these names so that I can send the proper sum. (An sase is enclosed). Our only book on the Curry family is Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families compiled and edited by Eliza Haddon Brevoort and Doris Bond Wheeler in 1952. It was published by the Burkert-Walton Co. We don't want to lend it on interlibrary loan as it would be difficult to replace if it were lost in the mail. It is also used a great deal in our library.

However, this book is well indexed, and I checked it for your ancestor. There is no Amry Marshall Curry listed in the index. I also consulted the Pound and Kester Families by John E. Hunt as some Currys married descendants of the Kester family. Amry Marshall Curry is not mentioned in this book either.

I am enclosing a page copied from the 1850 Indiana census index. The Currys listed are the heads of households, but your Amry Curry should show up on the microfilmed census as a thirteen year old child in his father's household. I checked the microfilm for the Currys in Vigo and Sullivan counties but did not find Amry listed. "Born near Terre Haute" could actually mean born in a neighboring county or even across the state line in Illinois. If you would like to search the census your local public library could borrow the microfilm from the Regional Archives Branch, 4900 Hemphill Street, PO Box 6216, Fort Worth TX 76115/

There is a genealogical query column in the local newspaper. Perhaps you could get in touch with someone who has information on the Currys. The address is: Genealogy, Dorothy Clark, Terre Haute Tribune-Star, 721 Wabash Ave, Terre Haute IN 47808.

The book Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families was compiled by Eliza Haddon Brevoort and Doris Bond Wheeler and published by the Burkert-Walton Co. in 1952. I doubt if there are any copies still available.

There is a Curry family tree that begins with William Curry and Miss McAfee on page 658 and runs through page 686. At 10¢ per page it would cost $2.80 to copy this.

There is also a chapter on "Curry Family and Kinfolks." It begins on page 531 and runs through page 657. The chapter is devoted to transcripts of wills, inventories, deeds, marriages, and census records involving the Currys, so perhaps you would not be interested in it.

I recently received a letter from Mrs. Ann Robertson, 911 Robin Lane, Arcola IL 61910, asking for a copy of the Curry family tree from this book.

Re: Saxbey - Curry

Dear Nancy Sherill,

Thanks you very much for your informative letter of Sept. 30.

I have written to Elizabeth Saxbey Whitecotton and also to Virginia Kennedy.

Today in checking Census records I notice William Currey is listed next to Zachariah McClure in 1830 Vigo Co. You mentioned the book, "Our Holdon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families." This William Curry is my gr. gr. grandfather — later censuses in Missouri agree with this one.

I have asked information for any listing of Brevoort (the compiler of the books) in Vigo Co. and she shows none. Is there any way to obtain a copy of the book or copies of pages pertaining to Curry? I would pay for the photocopies.

I believe my ancestors belong in both of the books you mentioned. Because they left the area in 1840 I believe they were forgotten.

Thanks again, Nancy, for all your help.

Sincerely,
Wanda Killeen

Dear Nancy A.

I rec'd the copy of the Curry family tree today - I thought I'd let you know that John Curry who married Margaret Adams is my 4th great grandparents + what little information I have, she is William Adams daughter. I have no record of her mothers name It was interesting to know Margaret's brother Samuel is your ancestor - So that would make you + ~~Susan~~ cousins. as Lee + Lynn Curry the twins mentioned on page 674 are my brothers. I don't know why my name never was put in the book. I was borned May 29, 1937. Lee + Lynn were borned Oct 8, 1934. We were borned + raised at Tarmersburg, Ind. Mom (Daisy Bolinger Curry) still lives there. Lynn's at Shelburn, Lee at Greenup, Ky. My dad Cecil passed away in Feb. 1974. How does your line run from Samuel A. on down to you? I could copy it + send it to mom + perhaps when she feels like it + has time she can come to the Library + see you. She might know some of the people in your line.

How many pages does the book have on the ~~Mc~~ McAfee's? And do you have Any Idea where I could buy a Book like "Our Haddon, McClure, Curry + Allied Families" You mentioned "the ~~Hallocks~~ Walkers" are in the book. Lynn my bro. married Sandra Kay Walker Around 23 yrs. ago but divorced a few yrs. ago. I can't remember her dads name any more. They lived at Terre Haute for several yrs. (her family)

I am enclosing $7.00 for the 62 Pages of the Curry family + Kirkpatrick. Maybe next mo. I can order the ones on the Mc Afees.

Mrs. Ann Robertson

Hope I've sent enough to cover postage - If not I'll pay the diff. on this end.

Thanks so much for all the information you wrote me!

Your letter of the 1st that was addressed to the Vigo County Historical Society was given to us since they do not have enough staff time to answer questions of a genealogical nature.

You are inquiring about John Fletcher Curry and his mother Jane Thompson Curry.

To answer your five questions:

1.) No, there are no death records for either of them since both died before 1882.
2.) No, for probate/land records you would need to write Clerk, Courthouse, Sullivan IN. (It would probably take a private researcher to find the records you'd need.)
3.) The 1870 Census is not indexed. While the 1880 Census (Soundex) is indexed only people that had children 10 years of age or younger are included.
4.) Again, the only way you could get a Will would be to write the Clerk at the Sullivan County Courthouse.
5.) Sullivan County cemetery records, as far as I can determine, are quite incomplete. You might try writing Mrs. Judy Pirtle, R.R. 2 Box 134, Sullivan IN 47882. She is Corresponding Secretary of the Sullivan County Historical Society. She might be able to help you.

I know Sullivan County has a "Curry Prairie." Some of the Currys who helped settle it later moved to Vigo County, and we have some record of them such as Oliver M. Curry.

When I checked Judy Pirtle's Index of Names and Persons and of Firms, I found more than three dozen Currys listed. We also have a voluminous book on Haddons, McClures, and Currys. I did find a John F. Curry listed, but this man is not the one you mentioned, for his mother was not Jane T. Curry.

We also have the 1850 Indiana Census Index , but there are many Currys listed, and you did not tell me John's father's first name.

I did not find these people listed in Vigo County Cemetery Records, but you could try writing the Clerk, Vigo County Courthouse, Terre Haute IN 47807.

I think you'd be best advised to write Mrs. Pirtle.

I am seeking information on a John Fletcher Curry who died Dec. 22, 1880 possibly in your County. John was born Sept. 29, 1832 in Sullivan Co. I believe.

Also Jane Curry maiden name Thompson died in 1874 possibly in your County also. Jane was John's mother so she would have to have been at least 60 years old at her death.

c. 1814-

Is there a

1. Death record for either? No
2. Probate record for either? Courthouse
3. A record on the 1870 (no index) or 1880 Census? No
4. a will for either? Courthouse
5. A cemetery record showing where they are buried

Any help will be very much appreciated

Enclosed is a copy of William Curry's land purchase from the Vigo county tract book. That is a record of the very earliest land purchases; we do not have later land records.

I found a record of the marriage of Julia Ann Curry to Samuel Cummins in 1840. The fact that you found an 1839 deed with her name makes me wonder if she was a widow. Somehow I can't imagine a young, unmarried girl buying land. You might have a search made for Curry probate records prior to 1839.

Our marriage records are indexed by bride and groom, so we cannot find the marriages performed by a certain individual. Justice of the Peace records are hard to locate and frequently weren't preserved. In general, we have indexes to records rather than the actual records, which are in the courthouse. Perhaps the recorder's office would have land records indexed by section, township and range so you could determine when Abraham Sankey acquired part of section 12, T 11 N, R 9 W.

Copies of the 1858 maps of Nevins and Honey Creek townships are enclosed. The 1858 Vigo county map is the earliest one that names landowners.

I made your check out for $1.

Dear Ms. Sherrill,

✓ Please send copy of an early land purchase in Vigo County Tract Book as mentioned in your letter of Nov. 24, 1982. WILLIAM CURRY, Sect. 10, Twp. 13, Range 8 (Nevins Twp.)

Tommy Hunter in Recorder's Office recently located for me an 1839 deed: ABRAHAM SANKEY and wife ANN MARIAH selling property to JULY ANN CURRY for $31.50 on 27 Sept. 1839. Location:

N.E. Corner of N.E. Quarter of Sect. 12 in Twp. 11, North of Range 9.

Have you any land records of this property? Or any mention of July Ann Curry? marriage Thomas Carter, J.P., and William Armstrong were the two witnesses. Would you have a record of marriages performed by Carter? Or the name CURRY or SANKEY mentioned with either witness on any record? Both Carter and Armstrong are shown on both landowner's maps-1858 and 1874.

Please also send copies of landowners maps of 1858 (or earlier) for Nevins and Honey Creek Twps.

A check is enclosed.

Thank you very much for your help.

Dear Ms. Sherrill,

Lucille Sappingfield has shed new light on the search for records of my ancestor, WILLIAM CURRY. She says that in a book about the Siner- St.Clair/Sinclair Family there is the following on a chart: William Curry m Clemsey Siner. Children: Delila Jane Curry, Hardin Crawford Curry, Morton Sinky Curry.

If you can find this chart I would like a copy or copies. Five or six children of William Curry were born in Indiana before moving to Missourt in 1839-40. Three of them were Morton, Hardin C. and Delila J. So this fits. But Ann is listed in the 1850 Census as his wife. Perhaps Ann is a middle name or a second wife.

On the 1858 Tract Map of Vigo Co. I see the name Siner in the NE Section of Linton Twp. which is close to Curry property in Honey Creek Twp. I hope at last the family is found, so I am enclosing a check for any copies you make.

Copies from the 1858 Vigo county map and the Curry and Siner listings from Hull Cemetery are enclosed.

The Biel family file contains a twelve generation pedigree chart on John G. Biel. His parents were William Biel and Susan Curry (1880-1956); his grandparents were Samuel Van Buren Curry (1841-1908) and Eliza Ann Liston. Samuel V. was a son of John Smith Curry (1816-1870) and Nancy Wilson and a grandson of Samuel Curry (1789-1875) and Sarah Watson. This Samuel was a son of John Curry (1757-1823) and Margaret Adams. (I am descended from Margaret Adams' brother Samuel,) John Curry's parents were William Curry (d. 1801) and Sarah Bigham, and William was a son of William Curry (1714-1791) and Mary McAfee.

The Curry family file contains notarized transcriptions of information John Biel turned into the DAR for his mother's membership. This includes Curry information from the Ebenezer Cemetery in Sullivan county, the Curry "family record," recollections of Curry descendants, Bible records, etc. Samuel and Sarah (Watson) Curry did have a son William, born 9 Dec. 1820. However, he married first Rebecca Russell and second Nancy Branson. I didn't see anything about your William and Clemsey.

Dear Ms. Sherrill,

Recently Virginia Kennedy mentioned in a letter that Mr. John Biel, Attorney, has done research on the Curry family. She thinks he gave copies to your library.

If so, I wonder if my ancestor, WILLIAM CURRY, would be listed in his research. I believe his father died in Vigo Co. about 1838-9, just before William and Clemsey Ann Siner and their children left the area for Missouri. The William Curry is the one mentioned briefly in the Siner chart, a copy of which you sent me.

Also in your cemetary records of Vigo County do you have listed a Hull Cemetary with the names Signer or Siner and/or Curry? If so, please send copy.

Please send the 1858 Tract Map of Linton Twp. Check enclosed.

I am enclosing a copy of the 1824 marriage record of William and Anna. It looks as though the names were really Simmarl and Hiner. There is a Simrell family still in Vigo county. I wonder if Simmarl is a wild misspelling for Simrell.

I also wonder if your William Curry and Ann Siner could have been here so early that the marriage was recorded in Sullivan county. Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Other Families by Eliza Brevoort shows that the Currys went from Botetourt county VA to Mercer county KY to Knox, Sullivan, and Vigo counties IN. Knox County, Indiana, Marriage Records, 1807-1840 by Mary Hribal and Jeanne Coan does list many Curry marriages, including a William Curry who married Polly Hogg on 12-24-1808. However, no Siner women are listed. The Sullivan county courthouse burned in 1850 with an almost complete loss of records, so if they were married there you might not find any record.

Dear Nancy,

I have been searching for years for the marriage record of my ancestors: WILLIAM CURRY (CURRIE) & ANN (CLEMSEY ANNE) SINER in Vigo Co.

The Indiana Source Book 1 (Vigo County, Indiana Marriages 1818-1830) on p156 lists: ~~SINNARL~~ SIMMARL, WILLIAM TO ANNA HINER 12-14-1824.

In Sycamore Leaves (Dec. 1982, p 37 (Early Vigo County Marriages, 1818-1824) is listed: WILLIAM SINNWARL to ANNA HINER DEC. 11, 1824.

Since the original writing on the marriage document seems to have been hard to interpret, could the names also translate to: WILLIAM CURRIE & ANNE SINER?

Is it possible to obtain a copy of the original writing? I have not seen the surname SINNWARL or SIMMARL in any of my research.

Thank you for all the help you have given to me in the past.

Sincerely,

Dear Nancy:

Thanks so much for replying to my query concerning the Curry and Sankey families. We know so little about these families except what has been passed down mostly by word of mouth. My great grandfather William Curry and great grandmother Ann Sankey were both born in 1805, William in Ohio and Ann in Virginia. They and other members of the family migrated to Newton County, Mo., in 1840 when my grandfather was only one. We know they came from the general area of Terre Haute and assume they were part of the families who settled there in the early 1800's.

I am enclosing a check to cover the following items mentioned in your research at 10 cents per page and postage;

✓#1. Curry Family History by John Brel - 17 pages.

✓#2. Vigo County, Indiana, Marriage Licenses from 1818 to 1850, 3 pages of Curry marriages.

✓#3. Notes on a trip to Ebenezer Cemetery - Sullivan County, 3 pages.

I may write the Terre Haute Tribune-Star per your suggestion.

We have lots of history of the families after they settled in Missouri and are anxious to to know more about their life in Indiana.

Thanks again,

The Vigo County Historical Society forwarded your letter of July 5 to the library.

I checked Vigo County, Indiana, Marriage Licenses from 1818 to 1850 by Mae Johns and Knox County, Indiana, Marriage Records, 1807-1840 by Mary R. Hribal and M. Jeanne Coan but did not find the marriage of Calvin Curry and Jane Daniel. Unfortunately the Sullivan county courthouse burned in 1850, and all the records were destroyed. Recently the Indiana State Library, 140 North Senate Ave., Indianapolis IN 46204, compiled a statewide index to Indiana marriages prior to 1850. Perhaps they could help you find Calvin's and Jane's marriage, assuming, of course, that it did not take place in a county whose records burned.

There were many, many Currys in Sullivan county, many of them named William and even some named Calvin. However, they came to Indiana from Mercer county KY and Botetourt county VA. They are written up in Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families by Eliza Haddon Brevoort, and I am enclosing copies of a couple pages. For the most part Mrs. Breevort published source records mentioning her relatives, but she also listed many in family groups. There are some Calvin Currys mentioned in her index but no Jane Daniels.

Indiana did not require the registration of vital statistics until 1882, so there are no official birth certificates before that date. Even the censuses did not list the names of children until 1850. The indexes to the 1820 and 1830 Indiana censuses list many Currys but no Calvins. The 1840 census lists a "Calven" Curry in Hancock county, pape 404.

I think you might get the best results from a check of the State Library's marriage index. Perhaps that would tell you where Calvin and Jane married.

I am returning your check as I did not find anything to copy for you.

Hello fellow historians,

Enclosed please find some information on the Curreys. The book pages are from the Indiana Magazine of History, Genealogical Sources by Dorothy L. Riker, 1979.

I sent to 40 different counties trying to find some information. Hopefully, I'll have some luck with your county.

Here is what I believe: I believe Calvin's father was Wm, born in Delaware. I do not know the name of his mother, other than that, I know she was born in New Jersery. + Curry Families p 602 Lull. Co. Currys came from KY - See Haddon, McClure

There was a Wm. Curry who paid taxes in Butler Co. Ohio in 1807. I believe he left that area & came to Ind. settling in the Sullivan/Vigo/Clay area. In the 1820 Census there is a Wm Curry. To further complicate matters, each son in each generation named a son Wm. Other family names include James, Samuel, Robert, Hiram & Milton.

Jane Daniel, I believe was either the daughter of Joseph or most probably Rebecca, who was a widow.

I also believe this family was quite well to do out East possibly receiving land grants from the govt.

Any information, wills, probate records, land transfers or what ever will be greatly appreciated. I will gladly forward additional funds.

Thank you,

Gloria Hopkins

I am seeking information regarding the following. Do you have any records of the marriage of Calvin Curry and his wife Jane "Danile"? He was my Great Great Great Great ~~Great Great~~ Grandfather on my father's side. He was born on 2 November 1797, in Butler County, Ohio. He mariried Jane in Indiana on 27 December, 1821.

Also, do you have recorded births of their first born off-spring, twins Milton and Martha who were born 9 October, 1822? Other children followed, bringing the total to twelve.

Calvin moved his family around the midwest and eventually settled in Grant County, Wisconsin. They were prominent and respected citizens. Jane passed away 10 September 1882 and Calvin passed away 29 April 1884.

I thank you in advance for your consideration. If you have any information, please reply and inform me of your certification fees.

Very truly yours,

Gloria Perkins Flathom

Shelburn[e] Baptist Church The Constituent Membership Record, May 7, 1870

*Chloe Siner Morgan

Little Flock Baptist Church, the first Baptist church in Sullivan County, was constituted in June, 1821. Not quite fifty years later, another Baptist church was established a mile distant; and in the course of the following three score years the later church absorbed the earlier. Little Flock Meeting House was built on the prairie and near the village named for the family of William Curry, who is reputed to have built the first cabin on Currys Prairie and started the village of Currysville, within the year that Indiana became a state and Sullivan a county. The wife of William Curry was said to be Clemsy Siner, one of the older daughters of Benjamin and Mary—"Polly" (Maladie or Mallady) Siner—, whose names appear on the Little Flock Record August 7, 1823—July 8, 1826. All efforts to trace the descendants of Clemsy have so far failed, though certain Currys living in Vigo County in later years are listed by historians of that county as descendants of the Curry from whom Currys Prairie took its name. However that may have been, not a single Curry name appears on the Little Flock membership list.

* The author of this sketch, Chloe Siner Morgan, is the wife of the late Professor William Thomas Morgan of Indiana University History Department. Mrs. Morgan's teaching experience has included an assistant professorship in the English departments of Indiana State Normal School, Iowa State Teachers College, and a lectureship in the École Normale des Institutrices, Blois, France. She has taught in Indiana University in recent years, and is now Faculty Research Fellow there in English History and Literature.

William in 1825 and 1826 bought land in Honey Creek Township, and evidently preceded his father-in-law into Vigo County. When Benjamin Siner died on his newly acquired farm in Pierson Township, near the site of Union Church, in September, 1826, Polly, as administratrix, presented an inventory of their personal effects and held a sale. Among the purchasers at this sale were William Curry and two other sons-in-law (Eli St. Clair and John Hodges), also two of the older Siner sons, James and Nelson. Nelson, who had married one of the numerous Shelburne family from Virginia, eventually returned to Currysville, where he established a stave factory and store, and became an early postmaster of Shelburn.

Nelson Siner's wife was Desdemona Shelburne, daughter of John Shelburne and Charlotte Wills (also given Charlotte Elizabeth Willis) of Virginia and Kentucky. Among the brothers of "Dessie" who came to Sullivan County, was a bachelor, Paschal, who in his later years buried his gold on one of his farms, then lost his eyesight and thereafter only the pigs were able to find it. But before this enterprising man had come to rest in Little Flock Cemetry, under the marble stone bearing the legend: "Paschal Shelburne, died January 29, 1872, aged 79 years, 8 months, and 28 days," he had founded a town bearing his name—wedged right in between the village of Currysville and Little Flock Church—; and approximately three years before his death he had assisted in constituting a church, Shelburne Baptist Church, within the town which he had founded. Some ten or fifteen years after Little Flock Church had celebrated its centennial, the members tore down their old Meeting House rather than rebuild it, and transferred their membership to Paschal Shelburne's Church within his town.

To those of us who are fifth generation descendants of the founders of Little Flock and third and fourth generation from the founders of Shelburne Church, looking back from the disinterested, historical perspective, the mystery of the existence of two missionary Baptist churches within a mile of each other has ever been inexplicable. Since a third successive building was under discussion in the spring of 1870, when the split occurred, this was likely the outward cause of the division. However, since an examination of Curryville is a village in Adams county, which is quite a distance from Vigo, founded in 1859 and originally called Coreyville, after Peter Cory, on whose land it was located. However, I did check the Adams county history index and did not find any Curry information.

There is a Curry twp. in Sullivan county, which is just south of Vigo, and according to A History of Sullivan County, it was named after a William Curry, who came with his two brothers and they each had many children. But it does not mention a Thomas Curry, who had a son, Thomas who went to Coles county IL and married a Sarah Langston.

We have a book Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Other Families by Eliza Brevoort, and the Curry section is quite extensive, but again none of the twelve Thomases mentioned were born in 1826, or married to a Sarah Langston.

The 1830 Indiana census index lists 5 Thomas Currys as head of household in Indiana that could be the father of your Thomas. One is in Floyd county, one in Tippecanoe county and three in Franklin county, but it would be impossible to tell which is the correct Thomas, as the 1830 census does not give the names of family members, only list them in age categories.

We have quite a large surname file on the Curry Family, but it seems to be on a different line than what you are inquiring about.

I'm sorry I was unable to help you.

Dear Historical Society,

I am searching for information of my gg-grandfather. Thomas CURRY Jr (born 13 Apr, 1826 from Family records), whose marriage record is recorded in Coles Co., IL 28 Feb 1849 to Sarah E. Langston. The 1850 Census of Coles Co., IL shows he was 23 years old and that he was born in IN. There is also a George W CURRY age 21 bn in IN in the same precinct. Since Thomas was shown as a Jr. is there any help you can give me as to his father or which county he was from.

He named his first son Charles N (for Nat or Nathan?). I know there was a settlement named Curryville in IN and some of these CURRY"S moved into Coles Co., IL.

I would appreciate any help you could give me. I will gladly share any information that I have of my CURRY'S.

NOTES ON A TRIP TO EBENEZER CEMETERY, SULLIVAN COUNTY, INDIANA

On Sunday, April 3, 1949, my wife, my son, and I decided to try to find Ebenezer Cemetery, where it was always understood the founders of the Curry and Watson families in Indiana were buried.

We started out from Terre Haute and went to Farmersburg, Indiana, where we stopped and picked up Mrs. Della Moore. Mrs. Moore is the oldest member of the Curry family now living. She is 86 years old. She is the sixth daughter of William Curry, (Born Dec., 19, 1820) who was the fourth son of Samuel Curry (b. Dec., 22, 1789; died Nov., 27, 1875) and his wife Sarah Watson Curry (b. Dec. 7, 1793 d. Apr. 4, 1882) and has lived in Sullivan County all her life. She remembers well Sarah Watson Curry and tells interesting stories about her.

After getting Mrs. Moore we went on down U.S. Highway #41 to a cross road where there is a sign pointing to the east to Ebenezer Church. After turning here and crossing the railroad we came to a lane leading to the north. It is not near the church but is the first lane east of the railroad on the north side of the road and is just west of a lane leading into the property of Lawrence Baker. We turned in the lane, which was only a single track wagon road and west possibly 300 yards when we came to a washed out culvert and could go no further. It was impossible to turn around because of the mud and water in the adjoining fields so we backed out to the gravel road. We then went into the Baker lane and drove back to their home where we parked and walked the rest of the way.

We walked through the Baker barn yard and across a wheat field back of that and just north of the wheat field we came to Ebenezer Cemetery. It is enclosed with a woven wire fence and has a wooded gate in the center of the south side. We crossed over the gate and although the cemetery is entirely grown up in high grass and weeds, we could see the imprint of a wide road or lane stretching from the gate to the north side of the cemetery.

Just inside the gate, to the left and facing onto the center lane, was a large metal tombstone with "Curry" on the bottom and with four names on it - one on each side.

The inscription on the east side was as follows:

William J. Curry
Born 1851

11. Nancy E.
Dau. of Wm and Margaret Watson

Aged 18 yrs, 3 mo. 17 da.

All these head stones were in fairly good condition, the inscriptions easily read with the exception of one on which it was necessary to put chalk before the worn carving could be deciphered. All the stones are of grayish white limestone, about three feet high and one to one and a half feet wide. They rest on a small base also of stone. The graves have been neglected and are grown up in weeds. However, at the foot of all but three of them is another small stone marker with initials on it which correspond to the name on the headstone.

After walking all over the cemetery looking for other Curry or Watson names, we finally found some in the extreme southeast corner. There were four in a row, facing west with the foot stone at the east fence line of the cemetery boundry. The headstones were the same type as the others. Number three listed below had fallen over and was partially buried in the mud. We raised it and cleaned off the mud and reset it on its stone base. These stones, beginning with the extreme south one and proceeding north, contain the following inscriptions:

1st: Thomas F. Curry
Died June 1,1878
Aged 59 yrs, 2 mo, 27 da.

(On the base of this stone which was slightly taller and larger in all proportions than the others, was the following inscription in carved script, which was exceedingly hard to decipher and could not be done without the use of chalk:

"Whilst in his tomb our father lies,
His spirit rests above:
In realms of bliss it never dies,
But knows a Saviour's love."

2nd: Susannah M. Magill wife of T. F. Curry
Died Aug 6,1869
Aged 19 yrs, 7 mo. 5 da.

3rd: James C. Curry
Died May 17,1870

EARLY RECOLLECTIONS OF THE CURRY FAMILY

By S. T. Curry

My first recollections of the Curry family is the old Curry home in Curry Township south of Farmersburg near the Baldridge mine which was the home of my grandfather and grandmother, Samuel and Sarah Curry known all over the country as Uncle Sam and Aunt Sally. They were really uncle and aunt to a large number of persons; grandmother, being a Watson, and one sister who married James L. Johnson of near Graysville and raised a large family. Two members of this large family are still living; Mrs. Sarah Silvers and Mrs. Nan Turman, both living in Sullivan. Another married a McKee of near Graysville, who was the mother of several of the McKees of that locality, one of which was John McKee, north of Sullivan near the McKee schoolhouse. Two of grandfather's sisters married Brodies east of Sullivan, among which Brodies from whom are descended Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. Corny Willis, and Mrs. Joe Crawford.

Grandfather and grandmother raised a family of six sons and three daughters. The sons were James Perry Curry who lived in Jackson Township and who used to ride as deputy sheriff for Walter Brodie and when he was sheriff and for the constable of Jackson township. All his family are dead. Next was John Curry who worked quite a bit as a carpenter when Farmersburg was first started. All his family are dead but two: Andy Curry of Coffeyville, Kansas, and Mrs. Arpy Bolinger of Caney, Kansas. The next was Thomas F. Curry known as Frank Curry, my father, who was born October 4, 1818 in Sullivan County, Indiana, and who died January 1, 1878. He married Susan Matilda Magill, born January 1, 1820, in Greene County, East Tennessee. They were married in Sullivan County, Indiana, September 23, 1841. To this union were born eight sons, and three daughters. First: Mary Jane Curry, born April 17, 1843, died April 8, 1881. Married Felix Branson.

Hello! I am enclosing a copy of the marriage record for William Curry and Louisa Jordan. Unfortunately marriages prior to 1882 were not very informative and did not name the parents of the bride and groom. I also found a marriage record for a John Curry and a Jane Jordan in 1827 and wonder if there was a connection.

We do have files on the Jordan and Curry families, but I did not find any mention of William and Louisa. Curry is a fairly common name in this area, although they seem to be concentrated in the nearby counties of Clay and Sullivan. William has been a very common first name among the Curry's.

I thought that I might be able to find clues to Louisa's parentage among the census records. The index to the 1840 Indiana census lists several Jordan's and Curry's, but for the most part they were not in the same counties. A Nathaniel Jordan and a William Curry were both listed on page 346 of the 1840 Parke County census. I am enclosing a copy. However, the 1840 census only named the heads of households. Neither household had a boy and a girl of an appropriate age to have married in 1844.

The 1850 Indiana census index lists a number of William Curry's. I checked the ones in nearby counties, but none had a wife named Louisa. We have an every name index to the 1860 Indiana census, and I found a Louisa Curry in Clay County, page 844. When I checked the microfilm, I found that her husband was William, but I wonder if he was the same man as the 1850 William whose wife was Elizabeth. Both men were in Perry Township and had a son named Daniel. I suspect that the 1850 William was the same man mentioned on page 409 of Beckwith's History of Vigo and Parke Counties. That W. S. Curry married an Eliza Ferrell, and the 1850 William had a 58 year old Rosanna Ferrell living with him.

There is a William Curry listed on the 1870 Clay County census, but that page of microfilm is unreadable. We have the 1880 census on CD-ROM, and that lists a Wm. S. and "Louiza" Curry living in Perry Township, Clay County, with Henry T. and Lucy A. Green. No doubt Lucy was the six-year-old daughter from the 1860 census. The only problem concerns the identity of William's wife. Was she Eliza Ferrel or Louisa Jordan?

I also checked our various books of stone readings for Vigo, Clay, and Sullivan County cemeteries but did not find William and Louisa Curry. Of course, our cemetery books are not complete because some cemeteries were too large to copy and some had lost stones to vandalism.

I tried checking the published will records for Vigo, Clay, and Sullivan Counties but did not find any Jordan who named Louisa Curry as an heir. Not everyone left a will, so you may need to have a search made of the Vigo, Clay, and Sullivan County probate records. Most of those records have been microfilmed by the LDS Church and are available through LDS Family History Centers. If you wish, I can send you a list of local researchers.

Have you tried contacting the Clay County Genealogical Society, PO Box 56, Center Point IN 47840-0056, or the Sullivan County Historical Society, 10 S. Court St., Sullivan IN 47882? Perhaps someone in one of those counties might have information on your ancestors.

Thanks for the $5.00. The copies did not come to that much so I could make you a few more if you are interest in other items on the research report.

Dear Ms Sherrill,

Please send me a copy of the marriage record and return for WILLIAM CURRY and LOUISA JORDAN. The date of their marriage was December 22, 1844 in Vigo County. Bk B p 76 ✓

In addition, I would like to learn more about the family of LOUISA JORDAN, specifically, who were her parents and siblings. Is there any information about this family in your collection? If not, can you suggest any references or sources that might help me discover this information?

I am enclosing a check for five dollars ($5.00) made out to the Vigo County Public Library to cover the cost of photocopies. Also enclosed is a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Nancy M. Roach

CURRIE, REV. CHARLES

Curry Family

Lost Creek Township

REVEREND CHARLES CURRIE

One of the outstanding citizens of Lost Creek township is Reverend Charles Currie. He was born in Scotland, Mar. 31, 1872. He lived in a row of houses called Common Row. These houses were located on a hill at the bottom of which was a lake. Charles went down to this lake one morning and saw a little bird in the water drowning. He waded in and rescued the bird, took it home and saved its life.

Mr Currie was the third child of a family of 14 children. Because of his kindness shown in many instances such as the rescue ing the bird, his mother said he was her best child. While going to school he loved poetry and the Bible. He quit school at the age of 12 to go to work in an iron stone mine. While working in the mines Mr. Curry received an injury and he carries the scars to this day.

Mr. Currie often visitad the home of Robert Burns in the city of Ayr, and he also visited the city of Dumfries where Robert Burns died. The statue of Camelon was erected near Mr. Currie's home. Camelon was the leader of a religious group of people who held their meetings secretly, who were killed one morning by the English cavalry. On his 15th birthday Mr. Currie sailed from Glascow, Scotland, for the United States.

From an early age Mr. Currie has beem much interested in poetry. He wrote his first peem at the death of his sister. He has also been much interested in church work, especially in revivals. One night he attended a revival where the minister asked him if he were a preacher. His answer was no, but replied that he knew the word of God. He was called upon to preach that night, and did. He has preached many times since.

After coming to America, Mr. Currie worked in the coal mines. After a few years he met a girl in Clay County, Maggie Ackers, and was married to her. To them was born one son, Tommy. Three years after the birth of their son, the mother died, leaving him in the care of his father. Three years later Mr. Currie was married to Mattie Lee Hellton.

Mr. Currie has been very active in our township in religious and community work. He has preached many funerals, and especially likes to preach funerals for poor people who are unable to pay for a minister. Mr. Currie's poems are known throughout the community and have even received national recognition. He has a large volume of these, called "Treasures of Poetry". He has composed a personal poem for the President, Mr. Roosevelt, which was praised highly by the President.

Mr. and Mrs. Currie have resided in Glen Ayr for the past 32 years and are well-known and much liked by everyone.
